Rideau Canal is a chain of beautiful lakes, rivers and canals winding 202 km from Kingston, at the head of Lake Ontario, to Ottawa, Canada's capital city.

“Bonjour!” Check in to the Hotel Pur, located in Old Quebec, and enjoy some time to browse the quaint shops and boutiques nearby. Old Québec immerses you in an unforgettable journey through time. Stroll through the historical districts, all within walking distance from each other. This eminently walkable historic neighborhood offers up an incredible mix of wow-inducing scenes and Old World charm.

A wonderful evening is in store, starting with a lovely meal in Old Quebec. After dinner, your carriages await! A horse-drawn carriage ride through the old city will be a special treat! Discover the richness and diversity that makes the City of Québec unique.

Day 5: Monday: September 25, 2017

Breakfast is served at the hotel this morning, after which a local guide will join the group for a tour of the city. You'll see Upper & Lower Old Quebec, the Plains of Abraham, the National Assembly and the Citadel.

This afternoon, another special treat....afternoon tea at the historic Chateau Frontenac Hotel. The Château Frontenac, with its copper roof, stone towers, and turrets, first opened its doors to guests in December 1893 and was immediately named one of the finest hotels in the world. Architect Bruce Price drew his influence from the chateaux in the Loire Valley of France. Originally comprising 170 rooms, today—thanks to several expansion projects and a recent renovation—the venerable structure boasts 613 newly restored guest rooms and suites.

Tea at the Château Frontenac has been a staple of the hotel’s reputation for more than a century. Although most of the events that marked the history of the hotel were festive occasions, one of the most important gatherings was the meeting of three Western allies during the height of World War II.

The remainder of the day is free to explore on own and enjoy the cuisine of your choice...maybe select some souvenirs for the friends back home.

Day 6: Tuesday: September 26, 2017

Breakfast at hotel, after which it’s time to say “Au Revoir” and depart. We make our way southward to Saratoga Springs, NY where the group will overnight. Tonight we will enjoy a finale dinner at Longfellows Restaurant. Located in a barn, but oh what a barn. Cross between an Adirondack log cabin and an Italian villa courtyard, complete with waterfalls, pond, fish, and lighted trees, and of great food.
