

The Royal-Tea Club

Presents:

Teaberry's Tea Room

June 28, 2019

We begin the day with a visit to the Fleming Castle Museum and Gardens, the first house in the village built by Samuel Fleming. By using various innovations it allowed him to build a three story dwelling that was the grandest house in Fleming's Settlement at the time.

Following our tour of the Fleming House, we'll enjoy a lovely tea at Teaberry's Tea Room. Built in 1822, the Teaberry's house is one of the oldest homes in Flemington. It is a Federal Style Colonial with gingerbread touches later added to fit in with the town's Victorian nature. Our tea will include a cup of soup, petite garden salad, tea sandwiches, scone with lemon curd, clotted cream & preserves, bite sized dessert assortments, sorbet or gelato and a pot of tea. There will be time to shop in the Carriage House gift shop after the tea.

Following our tea, we visit the Hidden Spring Lavender Farm & Gift Shoppe. June is the perfect time to see lavender in bloom. The group will have time to browse the gift shop and take home a little gift bag made just for you.
